Deb's Country Corner

Hello Country Folks,

Summer is upon us. School's out, the humidity's here, and it doesn't get dark until 9. Seems the car needs washing about every other day. Guess we're lucky around here in that we have an abundant water supply so that we can do that chore. I remember when I was a little girl, we didn't wash the car so often, because we didn't have a hose or outside spigot. We used a little different method.

It was a warm Sunday afternoon, we'd load everyone in the car and take off on our Sunday drive. If we ended up along Whiskey Spring Road, we kids knew what was planned. You see, back then it was a narrow dirt road. But at the top of the mountain, there was a place you could pull off, and drive right through a little creek. Mom would drive the car into the creek and us kids would jump out. Shoes would go flying, and we'd grab the rags out of the trunk.

We'd wet the Ninth down, and get off most of the dust. Then Mom would drive about 10 feet farther, and we'd soap down the car. We didn't want the soap going down the creek, so we'd have to bucket the rinse water. Well, with two or three of us playing in the water, there wasn't too much made it to the car. We'd eventually get most of the soap rinsed off, and ourselves partially rinsed and dried. We'd pile back in and off we'd go. Somehow no one seemed to notice that the dirt road made so much dust that the car was just as dirty when we got back home. I think the whole process was called, "Entertaining the kids on a budget."

Can you imagine going visiting at a creek now-a-days? Forget the rocks and mud, I'd be scared of the broken glass and acid rain. The times they are a changin.

Thought I'd share a simple recipe this week. I like it for barbecuing, now that summer's here. Try it next time you plan chicken on the grill.

Marinated Chicken
6-10 pieces chicken
1/2 cup olive oil
1/2 cup white wine (or white wine vinegar)
2 tablespoons Heinz 57 sauce
1 tablespoon garlic powder
1 tablespoon basil
1 tablespoon soy sauce
Water

Depending on the amount of chicken you have, adjust the amounts of oil and wine, so that your mixture covers the chicken. You can use the water to add to the liquid measure, but not so much that it watters down the recipe. Add all the other ingredients and pour into a large ziploc bag. Add the chicken and shake, so that the marinade covers the meat. Refrigerate overnight. When you're ready to grill the chicken, save the marinade and use as a basting sauce.

HOUSEHOLD HINT FOR THIS WEEK: There are lots of healthy substitutes on the market. One I've found is that low-fat, plain yogurt can be substituted for mayonnaise and sour cream. Also, if you put low-fat cottage cheese in the blender and whip until smooth, it's an acceptable substitute. Baking a cake and don't want to add the cholesterol in the eggs? You can substitute low-cal mayonnaise for the eggs. About 1/4 cup for every egg.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: How come the person who snores the loudest always falls asleep first?

Bye for this week,
Deb Wentzbeck

Reporting pollution

Rep. Bruce Smith said today that fishermen, boaters and other outdoor enthusiasts may contact the state Fish Commission to report incidents of water pollution.

The Clean Water Pollution at 1-800-854-7365 or a fish commission regional office should be called if pollutants are observed entering a stream, river or lake.

Smith also noted that all motorboats, including those propelled with electric motors, must be registered. Other boats, sailboats and hand-propelled crafts may be registered if the owner so desires. Registration stungers and validation stickers must be visible on both sides of the bow of the boat.

All boats must carry Coast Guard approved personal flotation devices (life jackets).

Super Dirt Series returns

The 1990 Super Dirt Series will return to the Keystone State on Tuesday, June 19th at Williams Grove Speedway and Wednesday, June 20th at Grandview Raceway. Each event will pay $5,000 to the winner for the 90 lap distance.

Under the promotion of Alex Friesen, promotor of Ransomville Speedway, in Niagara Falls, NY, both events will be run by the Friesen Brothers and a staff from various speedways.

The Williams Grove event will also serve as a 35th Qualifier for Syracuse for the first 358 modified across the line. Winners of both events will go to Syracuse in October representing Williams Grove and Grandview.

Sprints and late models

For fifty-one years Williams Grove has been best known for Sprint car racing. From the early days of AAA to the present day World of Outlaws, Sprint car racing has become synonymous with Williams Grove. But for the first three months of the 1990 racing season the closest race held at Williams Grove did not involve Sprint Cars.

On April 20 the late Model stock cars made their first of four scheduled appearances at Williams Grove and a classic duel developed between two of the area's top Late Model drivers. Rick Eckert and Gary Stubler, who went at it from start to finish. Although they raced side-by-side for much of the event their cars never touched and Eckert emerged with a very satisfying victory, the second of his career at the Grove.

Both Eckert and Stubler are expected to return this Friday night, June 15 when the Sprint cars are joined by the Late Models.

On Friday night, June 22, the Limited Sprint cars will be back at Williams Grove along with the Sprint cars. On June 29, the Supra Sportsman cars return.

The Sprint car feature on June 29 will be called the Daryl Glohn Memorial in honor of the former Williams Grove regular who was fatally injured in a Sprint car crash here in April of 1988.

A second memorial race will be run on Tuesday night, July 3, in honor of one of Central Pennsylvania's all-time greats, Mitch Smith.

Diamond P Sports has announced that the first World of Outlaws event taped at Williams Grove on May 24 will be broadcast on the Nashville Network's American Sports Cavalcade on Sunday, June 24. Fans are asked to check their local listings for times of the event.

Walborn captures first

Ron Walborn of Carlisle led a list of new faces to the winner's circle at Silver Spring Speedway Saturday, June 9 by capturing his first career super sportsman feature win.

Mark Billet of York took the rain delayed feature for the limited late models from June 2 while Ron Little won the regularly scheduled limited late feature. Mark Richards took the mini sprint feature. For all three it was their first Silver Spring win of 1990.

Ron Walborn started fourth in the super sportsman feature and took the lead from Bob Heckert of Carlisle, who led the first five circuits. Bill Albright of Dover pressured Walborn for several laps but his biggest challenge came from Gary Wolford of Bringue in the last five laps of the 25-lapper. Walborn raced up high against the remaining cushion while Wolford ran right to the inside of the track.

Walborn was fast enough to take the win over Wolford. Rich Eichelberger of Dillsburg, Albright, Bob Fannasy of Dauphin, Larry Jackson of Newville, Dwight Leib of Mechanicsburg, John Stoner of Enola, Dave Cordier, Jr. of Shoemakersville, and John Yinger of Harrisburg. Heat winners were Fannasy, Cordier, Don Beaver, Jr. of Enola, and Leib with George Group of Marysville and Eichelberger winning the consolation.

No driver has been able to repeat as a feature winner at Big Diamond Raceway in the sportsman-modifieds thus far this season but Mother Nature took her second program of the season Friday Night, June 8 with a severe late afternoon thunderstorm.

The program, which was to feature the Stroh's Super Sportsman, Sportsman-Modified, Street Stocks and Roadrunners will be rescheduled at a later date yet to be determined. The Champion Spark Plugs/NAPA Big Chance Night will also be rescheduled.

Bobby Weaver of Hellam captured his first sprint feature win of the season at Susquehanna Speedway on Sunday night, June 10, in win while Jeff Rohrbaugh took the semi-late main and Kirk Ryan won the thundercar feature.

Bobby Weaver started fourth in the 24-car 25-lap sprint feature. Meme DeSantis of Temple started second and took the lead from York's Karl Baker at the drop of the green. DeSantis looked dominant early but Weaver closed in on his bumper on lap 8. They ran side-by-side for several laps and finally on lap 15 the outside line of Weaver proved faster and he took the lead in turn four. Dan Dietrich of Aspers was strong and closed in on Weaver after he got by DeSantis. Dietrich ran out of time and lost by 1/2 car length to Weaver.

Medieval Arts to be shown at Quay Park

A demonstration of Medieval costume and crafts, sword fighting, and dancing will be held at Dillsburg's Quay Park on Saturday, June 16 from 2 to 4 p.m.

The demonstration is provided by the area branch of the Society for Creative Anachronism – Marche of the Black Rose. It is free to people of all ages interested in learning about life in Middle Ages.

Individuals and families are invited to stop by for a few minutes or stay for the full two hour program. Quay Park is located on North Baltimore Street in Dillsburg, between the square and the post office.

The program is sponsored by the Summer Reading Program of the Dillsburg Public Library.

For more information, call Mrs. Virtue at 432-4567 or the Dillsburg Library at 432-5613.
